VerwoodToday.co.uk is a respected and established source of local information for Verwood and the surrounding towns and villages.

It is run by Verwood resident Roy Martin who has worked as a journalist for the last 20 years writing for and operating trade magazines and websites.

Upon moving to the town in 2014 he noticed there was no local news service aimed specifically at the area so set about starting one.

Not long afterwards, VerwoodToday was born and has been growing year on year.

Today, the site attracts thousands of visitors each week, with hundreds subscribed to the weekly newsletter delivered via email each Friday afternoon.

If you run a local business, you can benefit from the competitive rates to put your banner on the site, in the newsletter and use our network of social media sites.
